

Exclusive NAPSA Member Competition WINNERS

Just by answering the following question 1 lucky winner has secured themselves a trip to New York City in 2007.

What will retail pharmacy look like in five years?

API Congratulate

DANIEL O'HALLORAN

(University of Tasmania)

WINNER

of the Exclusive NAPSA/API Essay Competition

The lucky winner receives a five day trip to the API 2007 Conference in

New York City

in May 2007, where he will spend five days learning alongside qualified pharmacists about retail pharmacy from best practice retailers and leading pharmacy brands!

And congratulations to the two lucky runners up:

PHILIP FITZGERALD

(Charles Sturt University, NSW)

KAITLIN ETEROVICH

(Curtin University, WA)

The two runners up receive five days work experience at Priceline Pharmacy Head Office in Melbourne, learning about how the market leading pharmacy retailer and wholesaler API, operates one of Australia's most well known pharmacy brands.

Winners have been notified.
Thank you to those who submitted entries.